“ Dr. Lizzy,

We know there is always pain at the loss of a loved one; however, there is comfort in knowing that they knew Jesus, have a heavenly home and a crown waiting for them. May God comfort you and family and give you peace as you adjust. Praying for you and know that precious memories will stay in your heart always.

“ Dr. Lizzy, In such a time as this, we need to remind one another of God's timeless faithfulness. The Bible, God's word, states that: "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die," (3:1-2). So, to you and your entire family, I pray that the sweet comfort of the Holy Spirit will be your portion. Blessings!

“ I am so deeply sorry for your loss, Lizzy and family. Even on your darkest days there is an angel by your side to guide you along the way. I wish you peace and healing. Special thoughts and heartfelt prayers are with you and your family during this time of sorrow.

Death is simply a shedding of the physical body, like the butterfly shedding its cocoon. It is a transition to a higher state of consciousness where you continue to perceive, to understand, to laugh, and be able to grow - Dr. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross “ Lizzy, God bless you and your family at this very emotional time. Your mother was very blessed to have such a wonderful family, who cared for her and was by her side until God brought her home. May the strength passed on to you from your mother, and the love of your family keep you strong at this time.
