“ Remembering and acknowledging the passing of Bishop Alfred Howard, Sr. As far back as I can remember (70+ years) there was cuz’n “Buddy Boy”. He went away from his birthplace, Hyde Park Community, far far away—but he never forgot his roots. Thank God for your legacy. You fought a good fight, you kept the faith now it’s time to rest from your labor. Maedea Davis, Tallahassee, Florida.

“ Bishop A Howard was a long lasting friend of my great grandfather the late Bishop Nathaniel Sam Green as a little boy I loved to hear him preach. He was a great man of God and a phenomenal preacher who preached the word in a relevant and practical way, and he was a man who stood up for righteousness and integrity. You will surely be missed Bishop.

Our condolences go out to Mother Howard and the Howard family know that our prayers are continually with you all.
