Allison, you know my prayers and thoughts have been with you all for many years. Sometimes I would as myself why God would put children through all the suffering and at one point, I thought it was because they were stronger than adults and would fight harder, in Bishop, your little warrior's case this was true. God bless you all.

Allison,

*I was so sad to hear the news.
When I saw your post, I was not expecting that news !! :(
I have been thinking of you and Warrick for several days now and know my heart is aching for you both!!
Bishop was such an inspiration and her long courageous fight was truly unbelievable all of these years!!
She was an angel then and a “True Angel” now !
Rest In Peace Bishop !!

“ Allison, I'm so sorry to hear of Bishop's passing. She made an impact in my life as her Make-a-Wish volunteer. Her smile lit up that whole theater, and I'll never forget her. My heart aches for you and your family. I pray for your comfort and healing.

“ Royce and I have no words. Our hearts are breaking, for all of you, but especially Allison and Warrick. We have spent hours remembering Bishop and how privileged we feel we were able to watch her grow into a beautiful woman. We so wish we could be there, but we will be there in Spirit. Our love and Prayers are with you all. Hug one another for us. Royce and Betsy
