“ To John Morgan, Geneva, Dorothy and The Family, We are sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. But remember, God has a purpose in our heartaches, the Savior always knows what's best; we learn so many precious lessons in every sorrow, trial, and test. All things work together for good to those who love God. Romans 8:28 Remembering you in our prayers, Douglas and Valleria Gaines

“ You have my deepest sympathy in the loss of my long-time friend and colleague from the 70s at Tennessee State University (TSU). Not long ago we shared fond memories of our employment in the Business Office at TSU. I am so sorry that I did not have an opportunity to see Carol recently, but I know she courageously fought through her illness.

My prayers are with the family. I share your loss.

*Just found out today, my memories go back to TSU and expand the many cities and paths, it is said our lives are written before we are born, I am so grateful my paths included Carol, time and distance never separated us, we could go for extended months or years and the moment we reconnected, it was as if not time had not passed. I am so sorry I was not there for the final journey, I should have been there to help, I am so sorry.
Earl Jr. You always have a home with me if you chose to.
The joy and the memories are cherished, we were born at the right time, what a great God we serve to provide us with angels, Carol was my angel.*
