“ Oh how I miss Cathy's "Cat" sweet smile! I feel in love with Cathy"Cat" the first time I met her a few months ago. She had a contagious smile that helped me on several occasions. And oh how she loved her family. I never met her family but I feel like I know them according to her conversations. The day she missed her son's birthday a month or so ago, her heart was broken!! I am so thankful God put Cat in my life and beyond blessed to call her my friend. According to her testimony, we do not sorrow as those without hope! Cathy had a Hope that carried her Home! I will see you again sweet friend! Praying for the family to be comforted and healing through Cathy's transition!

“ We were so sorry to hear of Cathy's passing. We are first cousins through her mom Betty who was our mom's youngest sister. The last time we saw your family was in Cynthiana at Leonos restaurant. It was such a pleasant surprise that day. Please know you're in our prayers. Marsha Moses and Betty Jenkins.
