

Mr. Christopher Lynn Draper

February 8, 1969 - February 9, 2015

Allen, Texas Age 46.

Christopher Lynn Draper was born on February 8, 1969 to Joe Neal Draper and the late Earline Seay Draper. Chris departed this life on February 9, 2015 at Plano Presbyterian Hospital in Plano, TX where he received exceptional care.

Chris was preceded in death by four precious family members, his mother, two brothers: Joe Edward Draper and Ryan O'Neal Draper, and his sister, Darlene Elizabeth Draper.

Chris obeyed the gospel at Bellwood Church of Christ, attended Castle Heights Military Academy and graduated from Friendship Christian School in 1987. He was a very dedicated, and low key person, but he would share strong beliefs and judgments at times. Chris had great love for his family. On April 20, 1996 he and Resa A. Davis were joined together in holy matrimony. Together they have two sons. He was employed at Kenneth O'Lester / Performance Food Group for 27 years.

He is survived by his wife, Resa A. Draper, two sons: Christopher Neal Draper and Christopher Reece Draper; father, Joe Neal Draper, father and mother-in-law: Reece and JoAnne Davis, brother-in-law, Reece Davis Jr.; sister, Teresia (Keith) James; sister-in-law, Jada Draper; two aunts: Nettie (Thomas) Guy, and Rosie Lee Britton. Chris had several nieces, nephews, cousins, and work associates; a very special friend, Mark Seay and very devoted work mentor,

John Maloney, the Sr. Vice President of Performance Food Group.
Please keep the Draper and Davis Families in your prayers.

“ To my sister Resa & family, We ? you so much. We are so sorry for your loss. Your husband was the kindess, gentle, loving individual. Norval really enjoyed Chris everytime he had a chance, to talk with him. We we're and are so greatful that you took us in and call us part of your family & we feel the tremendous loss. Now you have gained an "Angel" Chris will never be forgotten & We love you all so much. ?????

“ Chris has meant so much to so many for so many years with his work friends and to me personally as a personal friend. He provided a tremendous amount of character, stability, class and always took the high road. Chris will be forever missed, but never forgotten. The entire extended Draper family are in my thoughts and prayers.
