“ Chris, I will always hold a special place for you in my heart. You are my best friend and that will never change. I miss you with all my heart. My only regret is that I cant be there to celebrate your life. I will miss conversing with you on the phone. The beauty is knowing that you are with the Lord and I will see you again one day. Rest on My Best Friend Forever.

“ My dear cousin Chris,
Death is already such a hard thing to deal with, but when it's someone close, the pain cuts even deeper. Chris, you always made sure that when I came to town, you saw me and reminded me that you loved us here in Michigan. You will truly be missed, man.

I'm praying for our family, because as we know, precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His children. We don't grieve as those who have no hope, for we know that one day, when God calls us home, we will see you again. 🙏🙏🙏

Glenda Adams - August 10, 2025 at 07:10 PM

“ When I was a kid and you lived with us, you were always looking out for me and keeping me out of trouble. One time, my mom was making liver, and it smelled so good that I begged and begged for her to make me some. She told me I wouldn’t like it, but I didn’t listen. She made it — and, of course, she was right. I didn’t like it.

Since I’d begged for it, she made me sit at the dinner table until I ate it all. The sun went down, and there I was, still sitting in the dark with that plate of liver. You walked in the front door from work and asked why I was sitting there in the dark. I told you what happened, and you said, “Well, I like liver — I’ll eat it. Go to bed!”

I remember running upstairs saying, “Thank you, thank you, Uncle Chris!” You saved me from more than a few whoopings over the years.

I’m so sad I didn’t get to see you the last time I was in town, but I will always carry these memories with me. Thank you for your kindness, your humor, and the way you always had my back. Rest easy, Uncle Chris — you will be missed and loved always.
Much love,
Dominique
