“ My heart aches to read of your passing, my dear friend. I will cherish our precious memories until I join you in the hereafter. Everytime I sit down at a blackjack table, I'll only stick around if everyone at the table knows how to play 1st and 3rd base. Everytime I order a crown and ginger, I know to make sure it's real ginger, and not a coke/sprite mix. One day I'll have enough doh saved to to own a black Z28, and I'll think of you everytime I cruise Beale (or nowadays, Peachtree). And I promise to remember the proper way to code a COBOL program, just like you taught me nealy 30 years ago. You are, and always will be my brother. I love you most dearly and forever, Mark (Evitts)

“ Clinton has been a great family friend for over 40 years. I have so many fond memories of him and the great times he shared with our family. He was intelligent, hardworking, generous, and talented. He had a sweet tooth and knew all the popular spots to eat but was the slowest eater I knew. By the time he cut up and organized his food on his plate to prepare it to eat, it would sometimes be cold or everyone else would be finished. He had such a good sense of humor when we'd pick with him about it. I certainly will miss Clinton and shall never forget him. Thank God for the memories and for placing such a good friend in my life. Praying for his son Ducey and all other family and friends. —Nora Brandon
