“ although it's been some time since I've seen Cynthia I will never forget that beautiful smile that she always had when we just happen to run into each other. She was a very sweet lady. We are sadden that we want be able to be with you on Saturday as we also have a family member being funeralized on the same day. Keeping your family in our prayers. Thomas and Eula Stokes

“ To the family, I was at TSB with Cynthia for all her years there. We both started when we had the 2nd cafeteria. Our youngest babies were born about the same time.

Miss Cynthia is still loved and missed for her chocolate chip cookies. No one can make them like she could other than maybe her own mother! In fact since Cynthia left not another cookie has been baked! I share your sorrow, but may all the fond memories bring you comfort.

“ To Pastor Stewart and Family:

We just learned of you mother's passing on yesterday. You have our prayers and condolences on behalf of the Lebanon Church of God. Unfortunately, we will be out of state at another funeral on the same day as you mother's; but just know that you will be in our prayers. May the Lord be with you.
