“ A beautiful flower has been plucked out of the garden. Deb was a blessing to everyone she met, and loved her family unconditionally . She helped my family take care of our mother, a wonderful caregiver. I will miss her early text telling me she loved me. Keep her daughter, mother, sister and Aunt and everyone in your prayers.

“ I am at a loss of words ,but my deepest sympathy is for this family,be you strong and know sweet Deborah is now Alright. My friend often said it all with a smile ,that light up like the sun. Deborah once told me ,I know you ,and I know you cousins from Michigan ,who I played with many times. Well Deborah I know they will miss you ,and I will certainly miss you .

“ Debbie, I will never forget that day I was invited to your Church and you fix my plate because I was having trouble with my leg. You no I was struggling trying to stand, but you was sick too. So that prove that you was a very very dear person and you didn't let your sickness take over you. I thank you forever being there. I love you and family Forever my friend❤️🙏. Pat

“ We see a hearse, and we think of sorrow. We see a grave, and we think of despair. We hear of the death, we think of a loss. Not so in heaven. When heaven sees a breathless body, it sees a vacated cocoon and the liberated butterfly. My former classmate of 73 has been liberated.

Family you have my Condolences. I will never forget my dear friend. Deborah you are resting in the arms of our Heavenly Father. He will breathe the breath of life for you now on. For everything will be brand new. So you rest easy my dear friend/sister in the arms of the man who blew your first breath into to your body. I will never forget you, until we meet again.

“ To the family: Deborah will never be forgotten. Cousin,friend,sister I will always love you for being the best friend I've ever had. Absent from the body present ,with the Lord. We talked about God in our lives. I know that you loved and excepted Him as our Lord and Savior. I pray that on that Glorious Day when our Lord calls our name in the Lambs Book of Life and says " well done my good and faithful servant." We will meet again.Love you. Its hurts so Bad. Steve
