“ To the Wright Family my husband and I would like to offer our condolence's for the loss of a great man..My husband and him worked together at Perma Pipe and were also good friends out side of work. Also there was times when I went to pick up my husband that he would ask for a ride home and we never turned him down due to he was a good person and a great friend...Once again sorry for your loss.

“ To Debra and Family, I am truly sorry to hear of your loved one's passing, you have my sympathy and condolence. His song may have ended but his melody will linger on. Remember there is no pain on earth that heaven cannot heal. Lean and depend on the Lord during this sorrowful time in your life for the He will be your Shepherd and Guide.
