“ DJ was a really special student to me. I had always hoped he would come back to CU to finish his degree, but I was blessed to get to know him in the time he was there. He always had family as his top priority and sacrificed for others. I loved his intelligence, kindness, and sweet spirit. I thank God I got to know him a little bit. My prayers are with all those he left behind who love him and will miss him terribly. I will see you on the other side, DJ. - Dr. Inman, Cumberland University History Professor
