“ Mrs. Eddie was very special to me. She shared many memorable moments with my daughter and I. I know heaven lit up when she arrived. Eddie is now sitting along side Jesus and many other family members including her husband in the most glorious place of all. She will be dearly missed here on earth but never forgotten.

My deepest sympathy goes out to her loving sister in laws Ms. J. White and Evelyn Cason. I love you both and my prayers are with your family.

To the Family Of Ms. White, She always spoke to me in the afternoons when she gets off the free bus at train station. I would always ask, " How you doing doll?" She would say fine you, sir and we would smile at each other. She was quiet but she always smiled as I checked on her. I will truly miss her lovely smile and warmth.

I spent many afternoons on the Music City Star Riverfront station platform with Mrs. Eddie, waiting for the train. We'd compare notes on family (Boy was she proud of her grandson, a newly minted Marine) and travels, and I'd find anything I could think of to make her smile or laugh. She warmed and brightened every workday afternoon I was with her, and I'll deeply miss her dignity, warmth, and humor. My heartfelt condolences to her family and friends. She was a wonderful person.

“ I hardly know where to begin or what to say. At a time like this words seem inadequate. Sixteen years ago when we moved to Tennessee Eddie was one of the first persons to welcome us into the Tennessee Conference Lay Organization family. I know her to be true to her Christian faith in her walk and her talk. She had a missionary heart and would go the extra mile to help someone. As I reflect on the many talks we had and the privilege of serving God along beside her, I am reminded of the words to one of the beautiful hymns, "He Leadeth Me". The last verse says, And when my task on earth is done, when by thy grace the victory's won. Even death's cold wave I will not fear since God through Jordan leadeth me. I believe Eddie finished all the tasks God assigned to her and now she is present with the Lord forever and ever. I will miss her but know I will see her against around the throne of God. Singing , "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come."

“ A famous song writer Penned the song "May the works I've done speak for me" on this day as the life of my sister, my friend Eddie White is celebrated. There is not a more appropriate tribute to her than the words of this great song. Eddie truly demonstrated the life of a servant, she lived a life that represented her heavenly father. She didn't talk about what needed to be done, she just did it, She never strived to make a name for her self instead, she just lived it. although she had many titles, mom, granny, missionary, president. and for those titles may have been significant , but to Eddie those were just characteristics of who she was and the life she lived, to her they were no big deal. We are all saddened by her departure and we will miss her much, but her legacy and her memory will live on in the lives of those she touched. I would often tell Eddie of all the stars the she would have in her crown for her availability and obedience to the Lord. So today I say that, My friend, My sister girl, has fought the good fight , and have finished the race, She kept the faith, and I believe she now has received that crown of righteousness that was laid up for her. Love you Eddie White.

“ To The Family, We are sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. But remember, God has a purpose in our heartaches, the Savior always knows what's best; we learn so many precious lessons in every sorrow, trial, and test. Eddie Lee was one of five people that I have know for 62 years, we were together from the first grade, at Dickerson Chapel, to 12 grade, at WCHS. She has been a part of my life for a very long time, she will be sorely missed. She was always a jovial, kind and caring person. Praying for your strength during this sorrowful time.

I was so shocked to hear this news. Eddie was a sweet lady and I loved her as if she was one of my sisters. I know it is hard right now, but Eddie is alright now, resting in the arms of Jesus. It is one thing that I love seeing her wear, and she could wear some bad hats. Always dressed and she would look absolutely flawless. Eddie will be missed by all who lives she touched. Rick, Mavis, I love you guys. If I can do anything , trust me I will be there. To the family I will be in pray for you. May God bless you all.

“My heart aches for the loss of my work buddy, Ms. Eddie. She had a mischievous twinkle in her eye and a warm “Good Morning” to everyone. She was the First Lady of Tax Enforcement and there will never be another.

Those who worked with her know she’d tell it to you straight and you appreciate her for it. I could not have made it this far, at work without her kindness and encouragement. She always planned to strum her guitar and “tell her story” at retirement...the TE Blues. Now we can only imagine, with a smile, what her song might have been. I will truly miss my friend. May the good Lord comfort her family, friends and co-workers at her passing with the knowledge that Ms. Eddie is with HIM now and forever.

I know my lunch hour will not be the same. We all had a love of good food and good conversation. When we attended meetings in Kentucky or Tennessee, our Friend Deborah McCauley would be our driver if we needed to go somewhere. We all love the Lord and enjoyed working in the Missionary and the Lay Organization and we love the A.M.E. Church and was looking forward to going to the 50th Session of the General Conference, (our Bicentennial Celebration) in July. I am not a delegate, however, I plan to be there. After the Home Going of my husband, due to health reasons I had to relocate to Georgia to be near my daughter. As Sisters in Christ we stayed in touch.
