“ To me my Dad was the greatest man to ever live. Taught me so many things. Because of him I can build, do electrical work and plumbing. Not to leave out some car repair/maintenance. My Dad taught me how to cook my first family meal. No shortcuts. He made sure I was well versed, having me read college level books even though I was a 5th grader. If I didn't know the word, he'd say look it up. Every summer we'd take a vacation trip. Daddy made sure to expose me to history, like visiting Arlington National Cemetery after JFK's untimely death. I could go on and on. All of who I am is because of my Father's up bringing and influence. Thought my Superhero would live forever. I Love You Daddy 💔
