“ Archie and Terrell, Kim and Stevie my deepest condolences to you, as cousins, nieces and nephews we lost one of us but our ancestors gained another. I rejoice in the homegoing of Freddie Lee. I remember when he lived with us in Detroit while working at Chrysler, we had fun talking and laughing . . . Yes, he was reserved in personality but a great person. Rest in perfect PEACE cuz til we all get together again. Love The Detroit Steversons

“ Freddie and I were cousins on my fathers side of the family and my mothers side of the family. I grew up seeing him often when my grandmother would visit his mother which was her sister.

He was quiet but always had a smile.

He and my father had the same complete name and they were cousins.

As a little girl I thought that was funny.

He was a good man just like my dad was.

Now Heaven has two Freddy and Freddie Lee Steverson.

See you both one fine day.
