“ Tony (“Sweet”), you were a good and kind friend whom I have missed since you left Toshiba. I will always smile when I think of the fun we had playing video games together and especially when you would pause the football game so that you could walk up to the TV screen to encourage and rally your team with a pep talk. I miss you, I miss those days, but I will see you again, my friend! Rest in peace and thank you for living your life via your nickname.
