“ To The Jobe Family, We are sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Joe Willie was a loving, caring, and funny person. he always had a smile on his face whenever I saw, but the years had separated us and we did not see each other as often. We were classmates and he was one of my first best friends. I used come to the Jobe house after church on Sundays and play and eat dinner with Joe Willie and the family. I know you will sorely miss him missed, but remember, God has a purpose in our heartaches, the Savior always knows what's best; we learn so many precious lessons in every sorrow, trial, and test. All things work together for good to those who love God. Romans 8:28
Remembering you in our prayers,

“ To all the Jobe family: my forever brother-in-law will be missed. He called moms house weekly and if I was there and answered phone we talked and "cut up" so much. Time passes, people change and in him the change was for the better. He always told us (mama, Laine, (his nickname for Elaine) Eric and me he loved us.) we too loved him. Keep the faith! No more suffering nor pain. Vanessa Cartwright
