“ I can not believe that it's been two years ago to that I watched them lower your body to it's final resting place. That was one of the hardest that I have watched. There is not a day that goes by that I wish I could pick up the phone and call you. Or been laying in bed wide awake at 3am and wish that my phone would ring and you saying hey what are you doing?? I'd love to be able to talk to you about things but I know that you can witness them first hand. So you know everything taht goes on. Please have a talk with God and ask him to watch over everyone .to also place his hands on certain ones and help them out and get life where it should be. As I promised I speak of you and Josh often. And Jonathan misses you both sooooo much as well as I do

“ Leann I know you've known me long enough to speak my mind and say what needs to be said...Well I'm going to start with this.This is your time this the last of you being in the cold cruel heartless world.I know you know what's going on and the things that are happening.I know in your heart you would not want it this way .I'm going to say this..I cannot bring you back nor would I want to because you deserve to be flying high with those angels baby.If I could give you one last thing it would be to have your brother here.Because if he was none of this would be going on.You don't deserve this and by no means of what anyone has said or done.Just know I've always had your back and will continue you too.And I can promise you that tomorrow will be your day and there will be nothing or no one to ruin it.I'm sorry but I cannot take anymore of this enough is enough. You go rest in peace baby.The ones that love you will take care of the rest!

“ Even though for reasons we had to part,we were always in each others heart.The calls,texts,stopping by outta the blue.We always thought of each other and the times we shared.Become we once stuck together like glue,just me & you. We never once had a fight or disagreement,as most friends do.Just as we were ting to get back some things,I never thought this day would come so,soon. And I'm sorry but I'm sure u don't mind,I had to snap on u know who-you know I have to speak my mind.Never understood why u didn't just stay away from someone as cold hearted & no remorse or respect for theirselves! "Just sitting here thinking of u" Waiting to say goodbye to my best friend of so many years!!

“ I've only known you for two years LeAnn we have had our ups and downs but who dosent.We shared holidays birthdays gone to concerts laughed cried stood by each other for the sake of your brother Michael who I will always look after and stand by for you. You've come to my rescue when I've been in accidents and have always been there. You have loved my son as if he was your own. You took Johnny in loved him spoiled him and always gave him his way.Never did you go to a store and not be able to walk out without getting him something.He always wanted to go see and spend time with his Aunt Leann. Your life was short on earth but,you can now rest in peace and suffer no more.When you are laid to rest in the garden of angels baby your legend will continue to live. You were a mom,sister a wonderful Aunt to Mckayla,Hannah,Caitlyn and a wonderful Aunt to Jonathan Sherrill. These are the people that new you that new what you were about that loved you and have always been part of your life.Just know no matter what your legend will live through all of them.To some you were only convient for when they needed something but yet you still gave.And to the rest they new and respected no matter the fact.And as for Chris he will always love and remember how you were there for him.How you helped guide him and took care of him when he was sick.Always having his dinner ready when he came home just all the little things you both done for each other.How he would always bring you beautiful flowers home from work just to make your day...even though you hated the damn fish! Lol I remember us plotting on how to get rid of them...ha..You were one of a kind.You walk side by side with Jesus now and are an angel watching over all those who love you.Save me a place in heaven and be waiting for me when we meet again.Love and miss you. And one last thing if no one in this world really new you when it came to animals well Sasha Lynn Misses you as well and loves you!

“ Leann we have had our good times and our bad. And I choose to remember both. It's because of them we had the relationship that we had. You were a great sister in law. You were the most kind hearted person I've ever met. You put others before yourself. You made sure others had even if you didn't have it yourself. You loved your family and friends with all you had and they were your world. Im so glad that Jonathan was able to spend the summer weeks And Holidays with you. I hope he has learned these characteristics from you. Leann I promise you that Jonathan will continue to hear the great memories I have about you. And you will NOT be forgotten. You were taken from this world to soon. I've felt anger over this but I just have to remember that God only takes the best. I'd be selfish if I said I wanted you to be back. Cause I know that you are dancing on streets of gold with your family. I love you and miss you dearly

“ We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again

“ Posting this on behalf of her brother Michael Sherrill. All he wanted was to say good bye he States he feels all alone in this world now that you are gone. I'd he could be there to only tell you how he feels. Michaels said he will always remember all the times you two shared. From the fights the tears the laughter and everything you have ever done for him. He sends his love and prayers for you. He will see you again one day. Until then he says rip dear sister he will see you when he comes home. Love you Leann fly high with the angels sweetheart!
