“ When we first moved to Gallatin my husband had to stay behind in Glasgow for work. We had a push mower and sometimes I couldn't start until late. One day I saw Lonnie underneath our window. He was riding on his mower in our yard. Tony and I appreciate he and Betty so much. Their home and yard was immaculate and always took such pride in their surroundings. He will be missed. Betty, Tony and I are so sorry.

“ The Lord welcomes our Loved one Lonnie. Lonnie, a God fearing man took being a deacon of LFBC as serving the Lord and community. He was a fair man willing to do for everyone. He was trustworthy and giving. Betty, he was so proud to have you, his children and grandchildren. His family meant everything to him. Lonnie was a dear friend to me.
