“ Beloved Child of the Most High, Saved, Sanctified, loving wife, mother, daughter, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend to all. “You have fought a good fight and finished your course. Henceforth there is laid up for you a crown of righteousness and not for you only but unto all who love his appearing. “ 2 Timothy 4:8 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord for henceforth, “Yea saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow after them.” Revelations 14:13

To the family, You are loved. Trust in God. Jean not to your own understanding. Always acknowledge God. He will guide you because He loves you best now and always.

“ Lula and Bud were special to me. Both of them attended Second Baptist Church where my dad was the pastor. I had my son at a young age. He was born premature. Mom and dad were out of town. They took the time to take me to Vanderbilt Hospital to visit with Jeremy. They could have been doing anything else, but they were patient with me. I have loved them every since. Lula rest in peace. I love you and will miss your sweet spirit. ”

“ Precious Memories – Sisters in Christ

I celebrate your transition from this troubled world into your Heavenly reward, Sister. Oh, the times we shared in our Ministry Walk – the many services while we ministered together at New Shiloh, the evenings we traveled together to Bible College in Nashville, times our families enjoyed sweet fellowship, and the street Ministry we enjoyed in the Lebanon’s Inner City.

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! Romans 10”15 KJV

Our skin color was different but it never entered our friendship, it was never an issue n that's the way it should be. Your brothers n sisters were mine also. Thank you sweet friend n Heaven has received a beautiful 😊*
