“ Tasha and family
Losing your Mom is an extremely difficult emotional experience that most of us will face in life. However, your faith in knowing that she is now with Our Lord will be what carries you through this time of sorrow. My prayers for strength and peace will surely be with you.
Love and Blessings, Nancy Norris

“ Tasha And Family

The loss of Marie, is heartfelt here in Maryland as well. Yawl took us in, and became our family away from home. I'm sitting here thinking of all the good times we had and shared up on the hill. I know it's hard right now, if there is anything we can do, i'm just a phone call away. I will never forget her smile or her laugh and the warm person she was. I pray that God sends his comfort to all. To be absent from the body, Is to be present with the Lord. I send my deepest condolence from my family to yours. We love you. R.I.P. Marie, Rest easy in the arms of our good Lord. Gone but never forgotten. Clara Haynes and family. God Bless, each and everyone of you.

“ To Tasha and family, Sadden for you to hear of the loss of your Mother. Ty and I will keep you all lifted up in prayer. I pray you allow to let God put His arms of strength, comfort, and understanding around each of you during this time. Sometimes we don't understand why, because that is just us not ready to let go of our loved one.....but the joy is that you know thru your faith and salvation in our Lord and Savior you will see her again. Take care sweet friend. Ty and Kim Summerlin

“ I was looking forward to seeing Ms . Marie again , before the year ended. But I thank the All for allowing me to speak with her this summer when Tash came to Baltimore this summer. I thank God for Ms . Marie, she took us in and treated us like family during our stay in Tennessee. I will always remember her laugh, her smile and how real she kept it. We send her entire family our condolences, prayers and above all our love.

From the All we came & to the All we shall return.

Love,
