Mary Ann Harlan, born on November 30, 1932, in Lebanon, Tennessee, was the cherished daughter of the late Walter Scott and Willie Mae Harlan. From a young age, she embraced her faith, accepting Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and becoming a devoted member of the Pickett Rucker United Methodist Church, where she actively served on the finance committee and as treasurer of the older adult ministry.

A proud graduate of Wilson County High School in 1951, Mary Ann, fondly known as Ann, demonstrated exceptional leadership as class president during both her junior and senior years. In the spring of 1955, she celebrated a new chapter in her life by marrying Robert Lee McClellan. Together, they welcomed three beloved children: Michael Anthony, Ronald Lee, and Sharon Patrice.

Ann's professional journey showcased her incredible versatility and determination. Her various employment roles at Lebanon Garment Factory, Bradley Candy Company, Lux Clock, and Hartman Luggage exemplified her "whatever it takes" mentality. With a passion for creativity, she pursued courses in flower arrangements and cake decorating, bringing joy to many with her stunning wedding cakes and beautiful floral creations. A master seamstress, she even crafted a special tuxedo for her son Ronnie's prom, and in later years, she found fulfillment working at Lynn's flower shop—a place that held a special place in her heart.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Ann was a devoted daughter, sister, mother, aunt, cousin, and friend. She delighted in simple pleasures like garage sale hopping, exploring the Amish community for unique goods, shopping at farmers' markets, and enjoying games of Biz Wiz. Every summer, she loved to take her grandsons—Jonathan, Jeremy, and Joel—on joyful visits to see her friends, creating lasting memories for everyone involved. Although she had one daughter, God blessed her with six beautiful individuals who became her beloved God-daughters.

To her daughter-in-law, Dr. Kiamesha McClellan, she was affectionately known as Mother Dear, and to her grandsons, she was simply Granny Ann— a title that reflects the love and nurturing spirit she offered so freely.

On February 11, 2025, God lovingly reviewed Mary Ann's life's work and knew she had accomplished all that she had set out to do. In the words of Philippians 3:12, "Not that I have obtained - or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me." Her legacy of love, faith, and dedication will endure in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Mary Ann Harlan McClellan will be deeply missed but forever cherished, as her light continues to shine in the memories shared by family and friends.

My condolences to Ronnie and his family. Ms. Ann will forever be a part of the Cleveland, Hobbs and Leeville community history. She was a caring gifted woman and was a mother to all the children in the community just like all other mothers during our upbringing. My heart is sad because now the area only holds cherished memories that I will never forget. Sleep in peace Ms. Ann and again my heartfelt condolences to the family.
