Thanking God for giving you that much needed rest. I will never forget you Rena. All them visitations we shared together, most of them was all good.

Even in your condition , you always had that smile. There was times that I would have to get under your skin, when you was clowning around just a little to much. How you loved putting on a show for, Lizzie, Daja and whoever came over with us.

I will never forget your last birthday weekend. How you laid there smiling at me and Lizzie. You had started going to sleep , I guess we had tried you out. We told that we love you and kissed your forehead before we left. But as we got to the car Jimmy T. drove up.

So we came back in with him. And did your face light up.

I think they you had forget that you were tried. That was the first time that I seen you so happy in a long time.

God had been showing that your day of rest wasn't going to be long. All I could do was thank God for always beening there with you when no one else was. The I thank God for sharing you we me.

When time got hard for you,.I asked God to give you the strength to take life one day at a time.

Only God knew what all you had been through.

I never made you and different how people treated you , at time you would say something about it. I would tell you give to God. You would look at me as if you wanted to say there you go talking crazy Teresa . The you would turn your head and think about it. Then you would say you right and God will take care of it all.

Rena I know that you were ready to go back in August, be you had to go through, as I watched you just marking time, going through waiting on God to bring you out. As I kissed your forehead for you the last time that Tuesday morning at 3:25 a.m. .I didn't tell you goodbye I only said that I love you and for you to take your rest.
