“ There aren't enough words in the English language to articulate the warmth, kindness, love, joy, and authenticity you felt in Maurices presence. He made me want to be better. Even in death, he motivates me to do better. My thoughts are with April, Melody, Landon, Brick, and Kaleo. I love you guys. I'm so so sorry for the pain you're feeling.

“ Coach Marshall and I loved Maurice so much. He was a superb football player at Lebanon with a personality to match. Maurice always had us laughing with his stories and his funny voices he used telling them. Coach was so proud when he went into coaching and started changing lives of his players. I cannot imagine the reunion that he and Raymone are having right now up in heaven. Much love and prayers to his family, friends, players, students, coaching colleagues, his former LHS teammates and former coaches. We lost a great one.
