May 27th, 2024@7:47 PM; Deniece I feel your pain. My (Our) dear mother was my best friend. I was in my mid/ late 20's when our Lord & Savior called her/ took her suddenly. Our only Brother was only 12 yrs. Old. We definitely feel your hurt, pain & absence of a Dearly Loved Mother/ A Mothers' Love is precious as pure gold. You/ We know Gods' Love is the greatest, however Mothers are Precious. A Mother showers her Children with her Time, her Love, Her Giving, Caring for our Babies/ Children, Etc..... & once again their Giving $$$$$$$$$$$$$$ is unlimited, they assist us/ assisting us all throughout life. They love & assist our Children & our Children's, Children. I dare sugar coat (my), our life story/ stories of Motherless/ Fatherless, (Grandparentless), Children/Adult Children, Etc..... I must speak the truth. God said in his words/ his words. He'd never leave nor forsake (us), his Children. Deniece & Jacorey Be Strong & Of Good Courage! It's not as easy as some proclaim. Continue Communicating/ Talking and Praying to your Heavenly Father & Jesus Christ. Cry to God & stay on your knees in fervent Prayer. God will always be with you, your Son, your Brother (Mr. Clyde) & Entire Family ! I/ We had to grow to lean not on our own understanding but God, our Heavenly Father & Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit Dwells deep with you and your entire Family. Continue Blessing the Lord & God Bless you and your Family !

“ Norma was a kind and fun loving a person. She loved making people laugh. She used to make us laugh all the time while singing in the choir at the LCOG under Bishop Valentine. The funny thing is she would hold her composure until we laughed out loud so that we got the strange looks, then she would laugh. She was always a joy to be around. My deepest sympathy to the family. Denise you are a daughter that any mother could be proud of.
