Pamela was Always a True Lady and Friend! She was always thinking of everyone but herself! Her Wonderful Laugh would fill a room and was infectious for all around her! I can't believe she is no longer with us, but I know that she is now in Heaven and with the Father! Dear Pamela, You will be Dearly Missed by Me and Many Others! God Bless our times together! They were Precipus! You fought a Major Battle with the Cancer to the very end. Now RIP and know that you will always be Loved!!

Sincerely, Wanda Jones
Fellow REALTOR with PARKS

My heart is sad with the passing of Pam Dozier. We have been church friends during Bishop Johnathan Grier days and now Cathedral of Praise under Bishop Jerry Maynard.

We also attended MTSU together. During that time we attended and participated in gospel groups and choirs. In our college days, Pam, Tina and I would stay in church running to revivals: Shelbyville, Union Ridge, Cowan, Murfreesboro, Nashville and many more cities/towns in Tennessee

Currently we are members of the Tennessee Fourth Jurisdiction State Choir. When Pam sings, she would give it her all. One of her signature songs she would lead "Don't Wait to the Battle is Over - Shout Now"

My friend, Pam, I will miss you especially your smile and being able to laugh during choir rehearsals and church services. Pam - your battle is over but you can truly Shout Now!!!!!!

Continue Praying for the family 🙏, With Love Fred Crismon

Pamela had a beautiful soul and was always fashionably dressed!! She was a true professional! Her smile and laughter would light up the room! She wasn't just one of the real estate agents at Parks she was FAMILY to all of us! I will miss her tremendously and send lots of love to all her family members! Miss you dearly! Christe Endsley

There are not enough words to describe Ms. Pamela Norton-Dozier her smile, warm inviting personality and the love for music. I remember Pam back through the King Temple COGIC days. Laytona. Elder Michael Johnson I just can't image how you all feel right now, My thoughts & prayers are with your family.

Only time will ease the pain. But COP will not be the same . I will miss Pam singing I got a right to Praise the Lord and when it would get good she would throw that hair back it would fall right back in place. Lol. Sing Pam! Sing!

Pam and Kenneth were the first couple that my husband (Pierre) and I met after marriage. Pam and I would talk about her dream of becoming a interior designer/home stager, and her dream came true. She was loving, passionate and loved her family. She will be missed.

Pamela was such a blessing to everyone that was graced with her presence. She was my realtor twice and I wouldn't consider using anyone but her and she was such a blessing to me and my family! I loved her laugh and smile it surely brightened up my day when we spoke. She was such a professional and was an expert in real estate. I'm so happy to have met her. I will surely miss her!
