“ My condolences to the of Mrs. Rebecca. She was the last of our Inman Court Mother’s. What a very sweet lady. The last two weeks my mom lived she was so good to us at the hospital. I will never forget how she held me in her arms and prayed for me to have strength and the encouraging words she said to lift me up. The Martin’s have always been like family to me. I love you all may God give you strength. Annette McCarver Franklin

“ Rebecca was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever known. She was so wonderful to help our family when we needed her to come and sit with my grandmother and later my daddy. She was a precious caregiver. I loved to talk with her. She was very wise and always included the Lord in her advice. She will be missed and always loved by all the people who were fortunate to have known her. ❤️ Jo Smith

“ I am saddened by the homegoing of my dear Aunt Rebecca but I am very happy to know that she is now with a family of believers who crossed over before her. Eddie Lee, do you remember the last time I saw you guys at the store, you were driving out of the store parking lot and I had to stop you guys. I was so happy to see you both. May the good Lord continue to watch over the entire family and welcome Auntie to Heaven, give her the keys to her mansion and say, "Well done, my good and faithful servant". I love you all!
