“ I remember the first time I met Minister Rita. Her spirit and smile drew me to her. She had a smile and hug that would turn a cloudy day to a sunny day. She gave me a hug so big that I felt all my troubles lift away. She was a mighty Woman of God and a great confidant. When you asked her how she was doing should would say marvelous.

I often told her that I couldn't wait to see her smile and get my hug before I left church. Her words would give me strength and encouragement for the week. Minister Rita Mckenzie will truly be missed. I love you Marvelous!! Sharon Fulson

If we could ask her, how she's doing?? First she would give us her Best "SMILE" and it would be followed by, "SIMPLY MARVELOUS." There was no need to ask Sis. Rita what was her favorite color because she displayed it daily. The color purple she wore because it symbolized who she was, a lady of spiritual, royalty, pride, and so much more. I will definitely miss our conversation. She was such a Realist as she instructed you how to do life. So, family my sincere condolences to you all. Continue to Hold to God's Unchanging Hands
