What a treasure, that is my way to describe Ms Ruth. Always a joy to talk to, and each time I was volunteering with her at Vanderbilt Wilson County Hospital, or if I saw her out and about in town. I just saw and talked with her shortly before her passing. She was her usual joyful and smiling self. She will certainly be missed by all who knew her. She knew me by my nickname, Scottie, but often referred to me as her boss at the hospital. With love and sincere condolences to the family.
