Mt. Juliet, TN 37

Passed away at Vanderbilt University Medical Center.

Sheree Lashae Rison was born on May 19, 1979 to Myron and the late Delphine Dobson. She passed away surrounded by her family at Vanderbilt University Medical Center on Monday, Sept 12, 2016. At an early age Sheree professed a hope in Christ at Rutland Baptist Church, Mt. Juliet, Tennessee.

Sheree was employed as a business solution analyst at Hospital Corporations of America.

Sheree was the youngest girl out of four children. She enjoyed being a computer whiz, shopping, and interior decorating. Sheree especially enjoyed being a dedicated mother, sister, aunt, and friend. She attended Joy Church International in Mt. Juliet, Tennessee.

Sheree was preceded in death by her mother, Delphine Dobson. She leaves to cherish her memories to two loving and devoted children, Teaira Dezaray Rison and Jayce Hudson; father, Myron Dobson; two brothers Derrick and Myron, Jr. Dobson; one sister, Chalonda

Dobson; seven nephews: Lil' Derrick, T. J, Jaylen, Kel, Zay, Jeremiah, and Coby; four nieces;

Ty, Caya, Lele, and Kynleigh; one great niece, Journei; three bonus nieces: Quisha, Ashley, and Alicia. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Sheree's last words of appreciation: "A special shout out to my second Mom's, Phyllis Majors and Lanitra Ford; my dearest cousins: Moneshia Dobson-Crudup, and Ketra Dobson;

my best friend, Fredricka Oldham and I cannot forget Darnell Twan Ford; especially my kiddos, Teaira and Jayce; to all that texted, called, direct messaged, and people praying, thanks to you all. I feel so loved" ~ Sheree.

Please keep the Dobson and Rison Families in your prayers.

“ I am so lucky to have worked with Sheree. She brought such a light to our group, and I will always remember the way she could communicate so much without saying a word--usually it was the way she would cut her eyes at me when I was being funny. We'd have a second of a stare-down, and then we'd both share a laugh. Her presence will definitely be missed at the office, and I send my condolences to her beautiful children and family.

“ I had the absolute pleasure of working with Sheree while I was at HCA. I really enjoyed her enthusiasm and her encouragement, especially as I went back to school. “ Sheree was my very first hire as manager at HCA. She was someone I hired on instinct because she had a fire and a passion that is hard to find. I knew she was a capable, strong, and inspired woman that had what it took to find success. More importantly she became my friend. A friend that I will cherish forever. She was a beautiful soul inside and out and I will forever be grateful for the time I got to spend with her. I'm so sorry for the family's loss and all those that loved her. She is now the angel watching over us. May God grants us peace in knowing she is with him now. I will miss you terribly Sheree.
