“ Tracy I remember coming to charter village and the first day we became family. You instantly became my loud mouth brother. You and Ms Jackie have been so good to my family . The day before you passed you called and we gossiped like always.. Never thought that would be our last conversation. Even Rough and Ready as you called them loved them some Tracy. They ask me everyday are you in heaven and I told them yes you are and I told them look to the sky and they can see you. I know your at peace and now my brother you can take your rest. Keep watching over us.. You'll forever live on in our hearts. #LLMYBROTHER

I've almost been on this rock for 60 years and I can count the men that I have considered my friends... Tracey was among the few. Words can't express how I feel. I lost my brother. I don't usually speak my business but... After we get you to your final resting place... I'll drink my last Skol in your memory my brother. Love you and will forever miss you. Big Dre
