“ This comes as a complete surprise. Remembering the times we shared. All happiness....remembering the house parties you had which your mom chaperoned (yours was the best)..remembering seeing you on a visit back home a few years ago.feeling we had time to make plans to see one another again soon...Then I get the news that you have transitioned.....words can never express the loving person you were. even back 50 years ago...family rest assured this lovely heart is resting with the best. I can't wait for the house party we gon have when I see you again... I love you Wallicia Clemmons Rhodes

“ *So sorry to hear about Wallicia. I love this picture! It's how I remember her in the days when we (she, Pon, William Fultz and I) along with others, partied at William's sister's, Joyce, home in Heads Home! Some of the best times of my life! She will be missed! Thanks for the memories Wallicia! When we made them, we took them for granted. Little did we know what comfort they would provide for us at this age and stage in life!
Love to all!
