“ It's gonna be alright Bruh-Bruh. At least that's what you would try to convince me. Not only were you my positive voice, you were my lunch partner, my encourager and my chuckle when I needed one. I am going to miss you something terrible. My heart is hurting so bad right now. Know that you are loved and treasured. To the family; you are always in my prayers and thoughts. He was a very special guy. From Ranesa Pye, co-worker, friend, and lil sis.

Your MT&L Family - May 24, 2018 at 11:55 AM

“ When o met Wayne he was on his way to church. Wayne was a caring and a easy going peaceful man..He loved his family .Wayne and his sister had a awesome bond ..Wayne ways believed that God would make away ..When I received the phone my heart was hurt ..I had to pull myself together because I know that God has him now .He will be missed .He was a brother to me .I say rest in heaven now because you have gained your true Victory. Rest in Heaven ..

“ I was deeply saddened upon hearing about Wayne. He was a helper extrodinaire. There was never a time that he refused to help me out. He was the go to person. When ever we served food, he was the person that always took care of the beverages. May God continue to keep his family strengthen and comforted. Love, Missionary Anita Ferguson

“ I remember Wayne as always being helpful with a smile. Looking up to see him ministering to the Pastor's needs as a servant of God would do, when being honored to be in the presence of God's manservant. I also remember Wayne as having a great sense of humor. He will be truly missed by more than just his immediate family because he touched so many people with his smile. May he REST IN PEACE. To be absent in body is to be present with the LORD. Missy Head
