“ I still miss my daily conversations with Will at Page High School. There was just something about the man - a genuineness.....a goodness.....righteousness.....kindness. He was respected and loved. May our Lord and Savior give comfort and peace to the Sparkman family. I'll never forget you, Mr. William.

“ Mr. William was one of the sweetest people I knew. Even when I retired from Trinity Elementary and we'd bumped into him, he remembered who I was and we took time to chat. He and Miss Brenda will always hold fond memories in my heart.

“ William Sparkman was my first brother- in- law, Everytime I seen him I always told him, you are my forever brother -in -law. When his wife passed and as I shook his hand I said do you know who I am he said yes Carlotta and flash that beautiful smile, I will miss William, he was quiet, humble and the hardest working man I knew, take your rest. William you will surely be missed...

“ Mr. William was a hard worker. He worked 7 days a week and most of them for 12 hours. He worked to a high standard never taking shortcuts. He was also a caring person that would help you out in anyway he could. I will miss working, talking, and laughing with you Mr. Will - Big Will. Thanks for making everyday a little better.
